

Plans For New Grade School May Be Completed Within A Month; Favor Movable Units

The possibility that the Gettysburg Joint School Board will be ready to advertise for bids next month for construction of the new grade school building along East Broadway and the Harrisburg Rd. developed Monday evening at a special meeting of the joint board at the high school building.

The directors spent more than an hour going over working drawings for the new building with Harvey Williams, representative of Buchart Engineering Corporation, York, architects for the new structure. Mr. Williams said working plans may be complete in about two weeks and as soon as a final "okay" is given by the board, the plans will be taken to Harrisburg for final state approval and then the district may advertise for bids.

Monday night's session was one of a series of special meetings the joint board has held to expedite work on the new school which the board hopes will be ready for use by January, 1959.

Oil Burner Not Needed

Mr. Williams reported Monday that engineers' recommendations are that the building be heated by a gas-fired, two-burner heating plant without the need for a conversion burner to use oil in emergencies. Some areas have to install conversion burners where the gas supply's adequacy is doubtful but Gettysburg's new building, located along one of the main gas supply lines into the community, will not require an oil burner, he said.

After some discussion the board voted to use movable, ready-built closet, wardrobe and sink units at the rear of all classrooms in the new building. A plan for built-in units was rejected. "A possible overall saving and nicer furniture," was promised by Williams, who left the choice between built-in units of the general type used in the Keefeauver school and the ready-made units up to the board. There will be one teacher's closet and three wardrobe units for pupils in each classroom.

RE-NAME PAIR TO AUTHORITY BOARDS HERE

Two members of local authority boards were reappointed by borough council for five-year terms at the December meeting of council Monday evening at the engine house.

George T. Raffensperger, S. Stratton St., was named to another term on the municipal authority board and Charles B. Bender, E. Broadway, was named for another term on the school authority board. Both boards had recommended to council that the men be returned for additional terms.

Burgess William G. Weaver spoke briefly in expressing his "pleasure to have worked with you men for the last eight years" and introduced "my successor, Wilbur L. Plank." Plank will become burgess on January 6. Plank told council he was present "as a spectator."

Study Parking Proposal

Burgess Weaver, as manager of the Hall of Presidents, suggested that the Hall of Presidents be permitted use of some of the land of the Municipal Authority across the street from that museum, to place stone there as a general parking area for the south end of Baltimore St. He said "there is a great deal of parking there, not only of people coming to the Hall of Presidents, but also for persons visiting the Battlefield, Cemetery and Cyclorama. It constitutes a real hazard and we would be willing to pay $300 a year rental for the land and maintain it for everyone's use."

Attorney Eugene V. Bullett said: "The Municipal Authority does not want to get into the parking place business, but if council approves, it will rent the use of the land." The matter was turned over to the Property Committee for study.

Study Drainage Problem

The problem relating to an "excess amount of water" flowing onto Gettysburg College property which has been before council on several occasions, was deferred until January when a solution is expected to be reached.

W. W. Lilly, representing Alfred Hamme, architect, York, presented drawings to show how water from a drainage pond off Stevens St. He also said that additional water comes from college property.

TRUCK UPSETS; DRIVER INJURED

Elwood G. Gallagher, 24, Burnt Cabins, was admitted to the Warner Hospital this morning about 10 o'clock with a sprained back after a tractor-trailer he was operating rolled over near Idaville.

State police said Gallagher, driving a Strickland Motor Freight Lines vehicle, lost control of the tractor trailer, which was loaded with 19 tons of steel, and the vehicle left the Gettysburg-Carlisle highway, climbed an embankment and rolled over.

Arrangements were made through the Cleveland, Ohio, office of the firm to remove the truck. Gettysburg firemen brought Gallagher to the hospital in the Adams County ambulance.

No estimate of damage was immediately available.

The accident was one of three investigated by state police during the last 24 hours.

Monday evening at 5:35 o'clock a tractor trailer and an auto collided a half mile north of Hanover on the Cross Keys Rd. State police said Miriam Shearer, 26, Hanover, was driving a car south and Harry H. Childers, 31, Baltimore, was operating a tractor trailer north when the two collided while both were negotiating a curve. The left rear of the tractor trailer struck the side of the car, police said. Damage was estimated at $125 to the car and $5 to the truck.

The third mishap was on the Mummaburg Rd.

Had Guns In Car And Lights On Park Deer

Albert W. Kuhn, 33, Gettysburg R. 5, caught by a National Park guard at 2:20 o'clock Monday morning on W. Confederate Ave. with two guns in his car and with the headlights of the machine turned on deer along the avenue, is being charged before U. S. Commissioner J. Francis Yake.

Kuhn is being charged with having a rifle and a shotgun in his auto and ammunition for both. Neither of the guns was sealed or in a case, according to an announcement from the National Park office. Neither weapon was loaded.

A park guard, Emless S. Nett, who came upon Kuhn and an unidentified companion while on an early morning patrol, is the prosecutor in the case.

Kuhn is to be given a hearing before Commissioner Yake on Saturday morning at 10 o'clock.

President Is Applauded When He Meets Leaders On Defense, Foreign Policy

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower met with congressional leaders today to go over plans for solving the problems of national defense and foreign policy made critical by Russian scientific advances.

The recuperating President got a warm round of applause from key men of both parties as he appeared in the Cabinet room to take the chair for the briefing session.

Half an hour earlier Eisenhower received from his physician, Maj. Gen. Howard M. Snyder, another report of continuing excellent progress in his recovery from the mild stroke which he suffered a week ago yesterday.

Eisenhower was in his office nearly an hour ahead of the congressional conference. Press secretary James C. Hagerty said he was there giving a final check to matters to be brought up at the session.

Talks With Stevenson

Just before the briefing itself got under way, Eisenhower had a 10-minute talk with Adlai Stevenson, the Democrat whom Eisenhower twice defeated for the presidency. Eisenhower called in Stevenson as a consultant on America's program to be presented at the North Atlantic Alliance meeting opening in Paris Dec. 16.

Stevenson, invited to the session with the congressional leaders, was accompanied by the White House by Secretary of State Dulles. The secretary sat in on the talk with Eisenhower.

Eisenhower, after once seeing his plans to attend the Paris session all but written off on account of his seizure, now is awaiting word from his doctors on whether he can go.

Is Annual Meeting

The White House session today is one of an annual series, called to fill in the leaders of both parties on the administration program for the coming year in the foreign policy and national defense fields.

A special item on the schedule this year is a preview of proposals.

Fishing Boat Missing As Hurricane Prowls Pacific

HONOLULU (AP)—After lashing Hawaii with torrential rains and winds up to 92 miles an hour, Hurricane Nina prowled the Pacific today, spending her fury some 200 miles to the northwest.

Damage on most islands appeared relatively light, but communication was yet to be established with the little island of Nihoa. The privately owned island and its 250 residents were closest to the hurricane's center.

A Coast Guard air-sea search last night found no trace of a missing 43-foot fishing boat.

Preliminary reports from the five major islands indicated fewer than 50 houses damaged.

COUNCIL GIVES EXTRA $3,000 TO FIRE AND POLICE DEPT. TO END '57

Gettysburg borough council, meeting Monday evening at the engine house, by resolution raised the 1957 budget for protection to persons and property from $50,000 to $53,000.

The action came when Treasurer John H. Basehore indicated that the town could not finish the year within the budget for that department. So far $47,919.07 has been spent for police and fire protection, Basehore said. Normal cost for operation of the police department plus purchase of materials for fire company use is about $3,200 a month.

As a result, council increased the departmental budget with the additional $3,000 to come from "unallocated funds." One spot from which additional sums could come would be the Highway Department budget. Set at $45,000 for the year, the Highway Department so far has spent $27,823.08, according to the treasurer's report.

Within Overall Budget

Basehore noted that while the Highway Department has been thrifty, the figure shown for expenditures "is not quite fair, because the Highway Department has been able to spend some state money due last year which did not arrive until this year."

Basehore's report shows the town will stay within its $130,500 budget for the year. So far $105,761.57 has been expended, and the town spends about $8,000 per month. Last month's cost was $7,344.57. The treasurer's report also shows that the town will have to borrow money if it spends up to the full budget amount in each department. If the entire amount budgeted is spent, the town would need about $25,000 for the remainder of the year. Its balance on Monday was $15,390.35.

ICE HOCKEY IS TOPIC FOR LIONS

With the popularity of ice hockey on the increase at the high school level, Lloyd Blinco, general manager of the Hershey Hockey club, predicted in a speech before the Gettysburg Lions Monday evening that the United States soon will be producing its own supply of professional hockey players without importing from Canada.

Blinco, who also showed a film on "Know Your Hockey," said more and more communities in the United States are constructing ice arenas and developing ice hockey as a sport. He told of the development of ice hockey at Hershey, first in the old arena, and since 1936 in the 7,500-seat sports arena that each season is home for the Hershey Bears in the American Hockey League.

The speaker was introduced by Kenneth Dangler, program chairman, who said the Lions' annual Christmas party will be held at the Moose home on December 16 with sons and daughters as guests. Tells Rotarians Of "Title Insurance"

Atty. John A. MacPhail spoke on "Title Insurance" and showed a film on the subject at Monday evening's meeting of the Rotary Club at the YWCA.

MacPhail outlined how titles to properties are traced through courthouse records, and said that title insurance is being secured more and more to protect against loss from defects in titles which do not appear in courthouse records, but appear later.

The many motions which have been filed in recent years to quiet titles is an indication that the records are incomplete in some cases, MacPhail said.

President Dr. Harold Dunkleberg presided with 45 present. Mares Sherman led group singing. The next meeting will be held at the C. H. Musselman Co. cafeteria at Biglerville.

Out Of The Past

From the Files of the Star and Sentinel and The Gettysburg Times FIFTY YEARS AGO

Local Miscellany: Band concert next Wednesday evening at the Court House.

The library of the late Peter Thorn has been presented to Corporal Skelly Post, G.A.R., through the deceased's son, George D. Thorn, Esq.

Superintendent and Mrs. Hamilton moved into the new lodge at the National Cemetery on Monday. Sheriff Colestock treated the prisoners to a fine turkey dinner on Thanksgiving Day.

Emory D. Wentz has purchased from Martin Winter three 30-foot building lots on the north side of York St. adjoining Daniel Shealer's property.

Elks Memorial Services: Gettysburg Lodge No. 1045, Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks, held memorial services in the Court House Sunday afternoon. The services were very appropriate and the general eulogy by Wm. M. Hargest, of Harrisburg, past dist. dep. grand exalted ruler, was a most excellent one. The singing by Miss Himes and Mrs. Link was fine and was greatly enjoyed by the many present.

Sermon To Secret Orders Sunday Night: Rev. W. W. Hartman, of the Methodist Church, delivered a very able and appropriate sermon to the members of Battlefield Council No. 717 and Washington Camp No. 414, P.O.S. of A.

Business Change: Rupp & Enteline, who have been conducting a clothing store on Baltimore St. very successfully for a little more than a year, have sold the same to Seligman & Brehm, the tailors. The new proprietors will conduct the business at the old stand until the new bank building is ready for occupancy when they will occupy the room on the first floor facing on Chambersburg St. for a display room, and have their tailoring department on the second floor.

Spraying Demonstration: The citizens of Gettysburg and vicinity are invited to attend a demonstration in spraying fruit trees to destroy the scale on the premises of O. D. McMillan on Confederate Ave., near "Red Patch," Friday, December 6, at 1 o'clock p.m. A talk will be given and methods of destroying San Jose scale and other insects will be explained.

The public is urged to attend this meeting as the Department of Agriculture will soon begin measures compelling destruction of the scale or removal of infections. These public demonstrations are given under the direction of Prof. Surface, of Harrisburg.

Poor Board Reorganized: The Poor Board reorganized yesterday when Hanson W. Taylor, the newly elected member, took office in place of George W. Irwin, whose time expired. Noah W. Sell was made president of the board and the following appointments were made: Steward, Foster Beard; physician, Dr. H. M. Hartman; clerk, George Diller; attorney, J. L. Williams; treasurer, Wm. Weaver; matron, Mrs. Foster Beard.

The sale of Charles F. Redding, Cumberland Township, held last Tuesday was largely attended and good prices were realized. Another demonstration that it pays to advertise well.

Fires: But for the night watchman, Charles Haar, the furniture factory would have been burned or at least been badly damaged last Monday night. Repairs were made to the engine the day previous and a piece of burlap was left lay on top of the engine which took fire and fell upon some inflammable material which ignited Mr. Haar, with the assistance of several other men who were attracted by the whistle, extinguished the flames before much damage was done.

A slight fire occurred in Lutheran Church last Tuesday. Mrs. Bollinger, the sexton, was burning some paper in the furnace, when she discovered the joints and ceiling of the second floor on fire. She hastily secured

Today's Talk

BE INTERESTING

An interesting person is always welcomed. We keep learning something from such a one. You may ask what makes a person interesting? Well, one who is wide-read, has travelled much, and has contacted many interesting people. The late Bob Davis was one of the most interesting persons I have ever known. The late Christopher Morley was another. You could sit and listen to either for hours.

Intelligent people are always glad and happy to listen to an interesting person. People with hobbies are interesting, especially to those who have similar hobbies. Like book collectors, art collectors, or those who are collectors of stamps. Many of our most famous men are stamp collectors.

A person of many interests is always one worth listening to. As a youth I worked for a man of many interests. First of all, he was a farmer, then he was a writer to newspapers on topics of the day, and he wrote a book of poems. When the Sabbath arrived he preached in a small country church, and at election times he would choose the best man for the job and take the "stump" for him. He was a well-rounded man and I learned much from him, for he was always interesting.

If you are interesting, and have ideas, and an appreciation for the fine in many things, you will attract friends and keep them. People who have travelled much are always interesting, for their horizons have spread and their tales of many countries and peoples are highly educational.

People who complain that they never had a college education should be cheered by the knowledge that perhaps they are the better for it, if they have enriched their minds with the right books and read them to broaden their total knowledge.

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "Better Things Ahead."

Gas Caused Blast In Oil Furnace

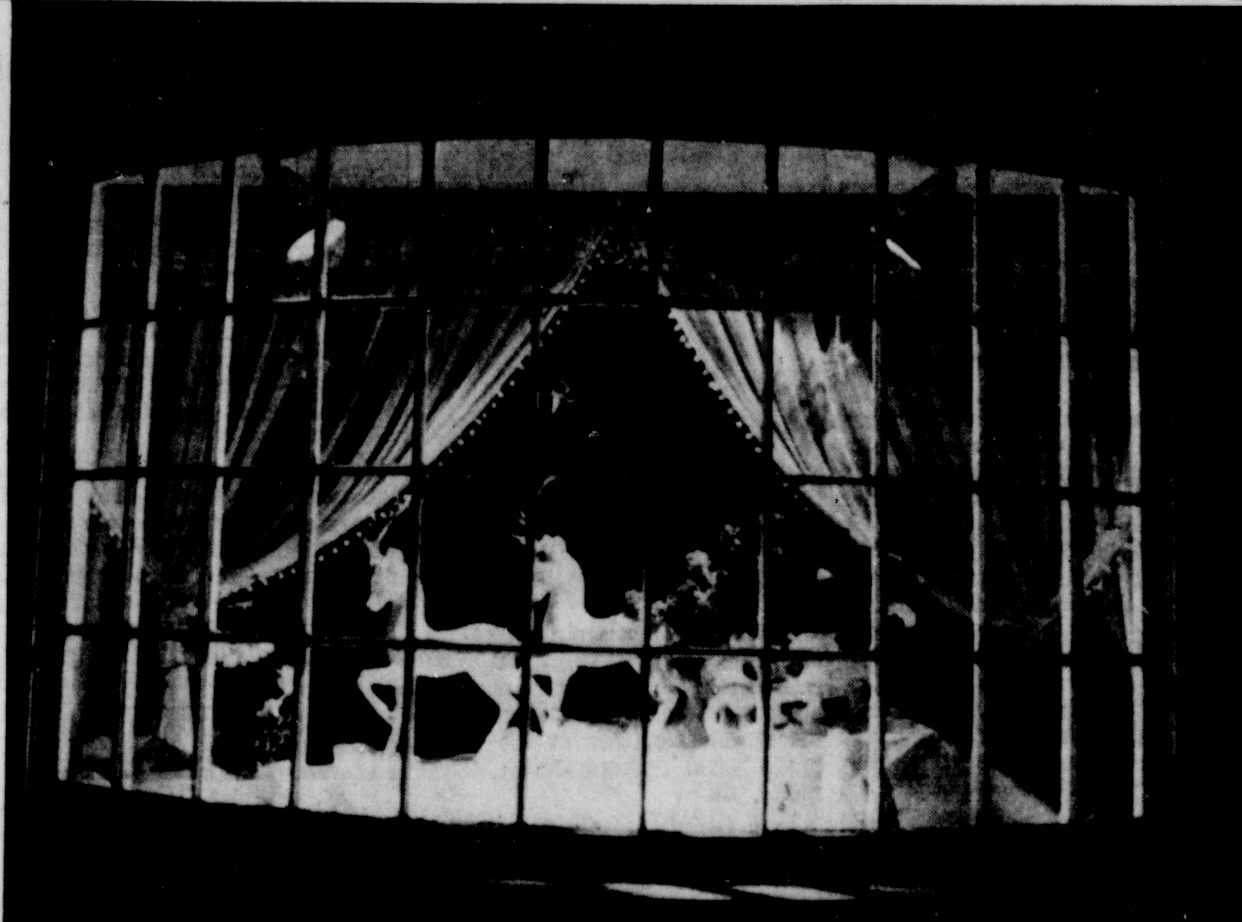

HARRISBURG (AP)—An accumulation of gas in an oil furnace has been blamed for the explosion yesterday which jolted the Phoenix Iron and Steel Co. plant here, killing two workmen.

William R. Radabaugh, 62, Paxtang Manor, and Matthew G. Grubic, 60, Harrisburg, were killed instantly. They were warning themselves by the furnace while they waited for their day's assignments. Three other men were injured but did not require hospitalization.

The show opened Sunday. The hours are 10 to 5, except on Mondays when the museum is closed.

Others Present

Those present included Secretary of Defense McElroy and Secretary of Commerce Weeks.

Gen. Nathan Twining, chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, also was on hand. So was Lewis Strauss, chairman of the Atomic Energy Commission.

In advance of the meeting, Sen. Russell (D-Ga.) and some other influential members of the Capitol delegation made it plain they will not be satisfied with anything less than drastic action to speed U.S. missile and satellite development in the face of the Communist challenge.

borough engineer, were directed to seek a solution by the next meeting.

Discuss Street Lights

A number of councilmen suggested additional street lights for various portions of the town but the matter was held over until January meeting. Councilman Philip M. Jones was instructed to contact the Metropolitan Edison Co. to determine how soon previously ordered street lights will be installed.

A resolution was passed permitting committees to spend up to $100 without prior action by council. Previously the limit was $50.

Councilman Harold Ecker asked that "something be done about" the stop sign at the northeast corner of the intersection of W. High and S. Washington Sts. The sign is obscured by a tree, he said.

Councilman Mahlon P. Hartzell reported a "blackout" in the York St. area "the last three nights." He asked that the Metropolitan Edison be contacted.

Reports Street Work

Borough Engineer LeRoy Winebrenner reported completion of a drain on N. Stratton St. He added that "we are now working on the repaving of Steinwehr Ave. at Washington St. where the new service station is going in" and said that the borough workmen will "remove trees and rubbish when the ground freezes and we won't be able to work on the streets."

The highway committee was authorized to place base stone on the uncompleted part of Fairview Ave. between Queen and Culp St. "to get those people out of the mud." The stone is to be placed as soon as the street is graded.

The highway committee was also directed to extend E. Middle St. to the curbing as soon as the U. S. government completes the placing of sidewalk and curbing at its farm along that street.

Burgess Reports

The annual report of the operation of the Gettysburg Municipal Authority was filed with council.

Burgess Weaver reported this income of his office during the month: Parking fines, $153; eight building permits, $74; one digging permit, $5; theater tax, $255.22; garbage license, $15; telephone call, 50 cents. The police report showed 14 arrests on criminal charges, 16 arrests on traffic charges during the month. Twelve accidents were investigated. Fifteen escorts were provided, 173 complaints investigated, and 38 "assists" given other departments. Three bicycles were reported lost, four recovered, three wallets stolen, two recovered, two missing persons reported and two found.

Chief of Police Jack Bartlett also reported that a money bag containing $978 in cash was found by a woman who turned it over to Officer Luther Stevens who in turn learned the owner's name, Joseph Guiffredo, York, and returned it to him.

GRID CIRCUIT HOLDS MEETING

Biglerville High, which will be a full time competitor in Class B of the Lower Susquehanna Conference next year, finished third in the circuit's final 1957 ratings it was revealed at the annual fall meeting Monday evening. The Caniners, ineligible for the Class B title as a result of playing but four conference games, won two and tied two.

It was revealed that Hummelstown, instead of Enola, was the winner of the Class B title under the intricate point system despite Enola having a 5-1 record as compared to Hummelstown's 5-2 mark. In addition, Enola handed Hummelstown one of its two defeats.

Susquehanna 5-1 was the Class A winner, edging unbeaten Shippensburg 5-0.

The league will keep the same Class A and B alignments for next year, based on school enrollments. Class A includes Susquehanna Twp., Shippensburg, Cumberland Valley, Juniata, Susquehanna, New Cumberland, West Shore and Big Spring. The Class B teams are Hummelstown, Enola, Biglerville, Camp Hill, Boiling Springs, Scotland and Hummelstown.

Attending the meeting from Biglerville were Jack Emanuel, Bernad Thru, Charles Yost and Rodrick Laird.

directors changes in floor plans for the lower level of the spill-level building, occasioned by the discovery of underlying rock in test diggings made on the site. To achieve a saving in excavation costs, the two special education rooms on the lower level were moved about 15 feet north and two storage rooms moved across a hall to reduce digging requirements.

The two special education rooms will have radiant heat as a result of the rock discovery. Plans for a trench for heating pipes there were dropped when the rock was found.

It was pointed out to the board that standard-size windows and other units in the building have been used wherever possible to cut costs. The building has been placed on the site to reduce grading to a minimum, Williams said.

Minimum Ceiling Heights

Superintendent H. Edgar Riegler pointed out that the ceiling heights used are the minimum allowed by the state and were kept as low as possible as a means of holding building costs down. Classroom ceilings will be from 10 feet five to 10 inches, Williams said.

Dr. R. D. Wickerham, who presided at the meeting, urged member boards to have their own reorganizations and committee assignments made before the joint board's December meeting next Monday when it will re-organize. Consideration of a name for the new building and a decision on whether another special meeting on the new building will be called this month also were placed on the agenda for next Monday's session.

As a result of that announcement the Building committee will confer with architects and engineers December 10 at 7:30 p.m. on plans for the building.

Mr. Meyers also announced that a preliminary approval has been given by the state department on a request for converting the present East Berlin High School for use as an elementary school at some future date.

Charles Phillips, Sixth grade teacher at East Berlin, was chosen as elementary supervisor for the jointure, effective January 15.

The board approved payment of salaries and other operating expenses totaling $34,626. The board also approved purchase of the Royal-McBee payroll system.

The directors authorized purchase of a $7,000 fire insurance policy on the school's new shop at York Springs.

Mr. Meyers was directed to go ahead with plans for the annual school employees' banquet to be held the third week of January.

A report given the board showed that 4,600 meals were served in the cafeteria at York Springs in November.

YOUTH KILLED TRYING TO RUN DOWN TROOPER

JOHNSTOWN, Pa. (AP)—A state police lieutenant said one of his troopers shot and killed a 14-year-old boy last night as the climax to a stolen car chase at speeds up to 100 miles an hour.

The boy deliberately tried to run down the trooper, the lieutenant declared.

The victim was Paul Misencik of Pittsburgh, a 13-year-old companion, Anthony Machi, also of Pittsburgh, escaped injury.

Lt. Richard Gray told this story: The proprietor of a service station phoned state police that two youths, in a 1958 model car later reported stolen, had driven of without paying for 20 gallons of gas.

Troopers Harry Ewing and Homer Redd spotted the auto and chased it about 17 miles at speeds of up to 100 miles an hour.

Serves Toward Officer

Finally, the auto slowed as if to stop. Trooper Ewing slowed the patrol car and Trooper Redd jumped out. As he approached the still slowing automobile, the young driver spun the wheel and turned the car around, driving toward Redd.

Redd fired three shots, two hitting Misencik who lost control of the car. It plowed into a guard rail.

Lt. Gra. said Machi told him that as Misencik drove the car toward trooper Redd, Machi said: "You're going to hit that cop!" Gray said Machi told him Misencik replied: "I don't care."

Dist. Atty. David Wolfe of Cambria County said "all indications were that the action of the officers in firing at the car was justified."

Al Kempton, Frank Capitani Receive Honorable Mention On AP All-East Selections

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Two Navy players who were important factors in giving the Midshipment a 14-0 victory over Army last Saturday — a victory which earned Navy the Lambert Trophy and an invitation to the Cotton Bowl — head the 1957 Associated Press All-East football team.

Bob Reifsnyder, the agile 235-pound tackle who was tabbed by Army coach Earl Blaik as the man who made the difference between victory and defeat, and Tom Forrester, an imaginative and able quarterback, were selected for the first team.

Two other Navy players, Ned Oldham, who scored all the points for Navy against Army, and Pete Jokanovich, a tall, pass-catching end, were second team selections.

Navy, Army Place Two

Only Navy voted the eastern champion by the Lambert Trophy committee, and Army, the runner-up, placed two men on the first All-East team. The others came from Penn State, Pittsburgh, Boston College and Rutgers among the independent institutions and from Yale, Dartmouth and Princeton of the Ivy League.

Army's representatives were sophomore halfback Bob Anderson, who was stopped for the first time by the Navy defense after shattering the Cadet ground-gaining record set by Glenn Davis, and Caot. Jim Kernan at center.

The All-East team was picked with the co-operation of a regional selection board of sports writers and broadcasters, whose members observed all the major teams and many of the top minor colleges among the more than 70 football-playing schools in the East.

First Team

The first team was made up of Les Walters, Penn State, and Mike Cavallo, Yale, ends; Reifsnyder and Jim McCusker, Pittsburgh, tackles; Joe Palermo, Dartmouth, and Tom Merhan, Boston College, guards; Kernan, center; and Forrester, Anderson, Bill Austin, Rutgers, and John Sapoch, Princeton, backs.

Second Team

Second team: Ends—Pete Jokanovich, Navy, and Al Jamison, Colgate; tackles—Llewellyn Oette, Williams, Lehigh, and Ronald Luciano, Syracuse; guards—John Guzik, Pitt, and Stan Slater, Army Center—Charles Brueckman, Pitt; backs—Tom Greene, Holy Cross; Ned Oldham, Navy; Dave Kasperian, Penn State; Gene Cove, Yale.

Honorable Mention

Honorable mention include: Ends—Dick Lasse, Syracuse, Dick Scherer and Art Gub, Pitt; Gene O'Pella, Villanova; Bill Graf, Army; Jack Farls, Penn State.

Tackles—Bill Melnik, Army; Ralph Antone, Colgate; Don Luzzi, Villanova; Roger Garrett, Cornell; Alan Kempton, Gettysburg.

Guards—Ed Michaels Jr., Villanova; Joe Sabol, Penn State; Alex Benecik, Syracuse.

Centers—Charles Ruslavage, Penn State; Jerry Lockwood, Colgate.

Backs—Dave Bourland and Pete Dawkins, Army; Dan Nolan and Walt Pijawka, Lehigh; Ned Coffin and Chuck Zimmerman, Syracuse; Emil Caprara, Penn State; Bob McAniff, Cornell; Ted Bocuzzi, Colgate; Frank Capitani, Gettysburg.

PCL AND NL IN AGREEMENT OVER DAMAGES, SETUP

COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo. (AP)—The Pacific Coast League moved today to set up shop in three cities after agreeing to accept $800,000 for pulling out of Los Angeles and San Francisco.

The damage settlement from the invading National League Dodgers and Giants will be split up at $150,000 apiece by six clubs — Portland, Seattle, Vancouver, San Diego, Sacramento and Hollywood.

PCL's San Francisco franchise — owned by the Giants — will be moved to Phoenix, Ariz. The Los Angeles Club, property of the Dodgers, will go to Spokane. The Hollywood club is tentatively scheduled for Salt Lake City.

"I cannot say we're completely satisfied," said Leslie O'Connor, PCL president. "And I suppose neither are they (Dodgers and Giants). They had to come up and we had to come down."

The settlement provides for the San Francisco Giants and the Los Angeles Dodgers to pay damages to the PCL from gate receipts over the next three years. The agreement was reached at the opening of the annual meeting of the National Assn. of Professional Baseball Leagues (minors).

HARRISBURG (AP)—Daniel B. Swaney of Uniontown settled in his duties as a member of the State Liquor Control Board today making that agency all Democratic.

The 52-year-old school principal, who describes himself as a teetotaler was sworn into office yesterday during a short ceremony attended by Gov. Leader and other state officials.

Swaney replaces Donald A. Behney, a Lebanon Republican, whose term expired last Friday. Swaney's term will run until the end of the next legislative session unless he is removed prior to that time.

The board consists of three members.

Money derived from Saturday's dinner will be used to purchase uniforms for the five-team boys' league. Member teams include Mummaburg, Cashtown, Orrtanna, Fairfield and the Fairfield Amvets. For the past two years players have performed without uniforms and it is planned to have every boy in uniform next season.

Following the dinner, games will be provided for patrons.

Bullets Oppose Villanova At Palestra Wednesday In Opening Basketball Tilt

Gettysburg College's cagers open a rugged 25-game schedule with a pair of games on foreign courts this week, meeting Villanova at the Penn Palestra Wednesday evening and Hofstra at Hempstead, Long Island, Saturday afternoon.

The Bullet-Wildcat game will precede a clash between Penn and William and Mary at the Palestra.

Bob Hulton, who enjoyed great success at York Junior College, runs smack into several injuries which will create a definite thinness on the squad.

Marty Miller, 6-0 senior, will be absent indefinitely due to recent surgery for a leg injury. Walt McGowan, 6-3 junior, is nursing an eye injury. Both lettermen figure to see a lot of action as the season progresses. In addition Barry Gwinn, 6-4 sophomore, has a thumb injury which will pare his performance.

Drill With Mount

Hulton took his Bullet squad to Emmitsburg for a practice scrimmage with the Mountaineers Monday evening and was encouraged with the performance of his charges who shot well but showed there is still plenty of room for improvement. The new Bullet mentor is schooling his charges on both man-to-man and zone style of play and that system will be alternated throughout.

An all-letterman squad is scheduled to oppose Villanova. The starters will include Walt Melnick, 5-10 junior; Stan Traymore, 6-1 senior; Frank Grzelecki, 6-5 junior; Del Warfel, 6-6 junior, and Bobby Wallace, 6-1 senior. Jack Hathaway, 6-0 junior, a letterman, and Gerald Long, 5-9 junior, a transfer from Hershey Junior College, are destined for relief duty.

Al Severance, Villanova coach, believes he has one of the best Wildcat squads in years, much depending on the work of 6-8 John Scott, a sophomore. In the words of Severance, "he's the key to our hopes."

Villanova has plenty of holdover experienced lads in Tom Brennan 6-7; Ken Harrison 6-3; Joe Ryan 6-3; Bill Brennan 6-2; Jack Kelly 6-3; George Emma 6-1, and Ralph Kowalkowski 6-3.

WILT, THE STILT, DROPS IN 30 AS SEASON OPENS

By BEN OLAN

The Associated Press

The 1957-1958 college basketball season is only one day old today and already two of the mighty teams have fallen and Wilt (The Stilt) Chamberlain has indicated he's retained his amazing scoring touch.

Chamberlain, who averaged 29.6 points a game as a sophomore last year, dropped in 30 points last night as Kansas opened with a 65-56 victory over Oklahoma State.

The Jayhawks' success was expected. Unexpected developments, however, were Southern Methodist's 66-51 setback by Minnesota and Louisville's 92-82 loss to Ohio University of the Mid-American Conference.

Other Big Ten teams came through handsomely. Michigan State got 30 points from John Green and tripped Butler 74-55. Northwestern rode over Western Michigan 97-78. Wisconsin finished strong to defeat South Dakota 63-56. Purdue beat Miami of Ohio 79-66 and Illinois whipped Marquette 100-90.

Kentucky, ranked third last season, had to rally in the final two minutes to outlast Duke 78-74 while Vanderbilt and Oklahoma City, two more of last year's elite, had less trouble in their openers. Vanderbilt walloped Seton Hall 91-53 and Oklahoma City defeated Houston 85-75.

Unveil Star
Jean Claude Lefebvre, a 7-foot, 3½, Frenchman, was unveiled by Gonzaga. The 280-pound giant scored 13 points in his American debut as Gonzaga ripped the College of Idaho 71-37.

The San Francisco Dons, national champs two years ago, beat Chico State 74-31 and Stanford defeated College of Pacific 77-61 in their West Coast games.

Chamberlain had 13 field goals and 4 of 8 from the free throw line as the Jayhawks took an 8-6 lead after seven minutes and never were headed.

Southern Methodist cut a Minnesota lead, to 38-37 midway in the second half. Then Whitey Johnson pumped in three field goals for the Gophers to start the winners on another surge.

Without Charley Tyra and several other graduates, Louisville never could get going against Evansville. Louisville trailed by three points at the half.

She will receive $6,996 in the post previously held by James B. McFadden who also directed the County Audits Section. He will continue in that post.

Name Lancaster To Central Penn Title

ANNVILLE, Pa. (AP)—Lancaster's upset victory over defending Central Penn Conference Football Champion Williamsport last Thanksgiving day is now complete.

The conference unanimously elected Lancaster its champion at a meeting here last night. The motion was made by David Steumple, principal of Williamsport High School.

Dr. Merdith Perry of York was elected president of the conference for the coming year.

NFL HAS BUSY DAY ON DRAFT, PLAYER PEACE

By RALPH BERNSTEIN

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—The National Football League drafted 49 standout college football players, made peace with its players and moved to bring its constitution and bylaws within the anti-trust act at a day-long meeting here yesterday.

League coaches and their staffs spent some five hours poring over scouting reports as they moved through four of the 30 rounds in the annual player draft. The balance of the draft will be held at the league's regular mid-winter meeting next month. The preliminary selections were to give NFL teams equal footing with early drafting Canadian League clubs.

Immediately after the draft the owners went into executive session and in probably the most harmonious NFL meeting in history quickly approved recommendations by Commissioner Bert Bell that they give the Players Assn. all it wanted. Their action in approving $50 per game exhibition pay, a $5,000 minimum salary, an injury protection clause and recognition of the association as a formal representative of the players confirmed an exclusive Associated Press report of a week ago.

Long Before Suit

Bell said his recommendations were made long before a threatened $4,200,000 treble damage suit by Creighton Miller, attorney for the players association.

He said all his recommendations will be written into the league book making them an official contract. In connection with the much sought after "recognition," Bell said that although it wasn't necessary under the league constitution the owners approved his act of recognizing the association last fall during an appearance before a congressional committee. The committee was investigating the possibility that some professional sports violated anti-trust laws.

May Remove Lottery Element
As a result of his appearance before the committee Bell said language in the constitution and bylaws regarding ticket prices, limitation of fees allowed college All-Stars for games against pro teams, and several other items was rephrased to comply with the law.

He disclosed that congressional influence probably would result in a change in the method of selecting the bonus player. Instead of the customary out-of-hat draw, Bell will recommend at the January meeting that the last place team get the bonus choice. If the last place team in any year already has won the prize, the next lowest team in line would get it until all 12 clubs were successful. This would remove the lottery element objected to in the out-of-hat system.

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Development of a new method for treating pitted scars resulting from smallpox, pimples and certain other conditions was reported today by a Harvard skin specialist.

Dr. Arthur S. Spangler described the technique in a scientific exhibit prepared for the opening of the 11th clinical meeting of the American Medical Assn.

Spangler, of Massachusetts General and Peter Bent Brigham hospitals, said his treatment involves anesthetizing the area and then cutting the fibrous strands beneath each scar with a small, two-edged knife. The knife is inserted through the hole made by the needle used to inject the pain-killer.

Uses Blood Extract
Finally, into the space so created beneath the scar, he injects a substance called "fibrin foam"—an extract of human blood.

The fibrin foam raises the bottom of the scar to the level of the rest of the skin, he said, adding that within several months the fibrin foam is absorbed by the body tissue and replaced by normal tissue.

Declaring the new technique is equally effective for large and small scars and for shallow and deep ones, Spangler said that although the scar area may be black and blue for two or three days, the skin soon resumes its normal color.

The physician said that at times the skin covering the scar is so thin that even after treatment the scar remains visible. But he

Park Police Chase 10 Imported Swans

PHILADELPHIA, Pa. (AP)—Two groups of "seagoing" Fairmont Park police guards have been going around in circles on the Schuylkill River since Saturday trying to round up 10 imported swans which escaped from their riverside pen.

The birds with wings clipped had been brought in to grace riverside beautification projects. Police in outboard motorboats tried casting bread on the waters, but still the swans paddled swiftly out of reach. The swans, worth about $75 each, meanwhile are missing their vitamins from a special food formula prepared by the zoo.

Two Chimpanzees Are Recaptured

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—Two chimpanzees escaped from a commercial exhibit while their cage was being cleaned. Tourists scattered before them and two employees who tried to catch them were bitten.

Before they were cornered, a 50-pound 5-year-old named Bongo invaded a snack bar and began tossing glasses around.

Maggie, a 15-year-old 75-pounder, was trapped in a tool shed where a spiked soft drink was passed in to her. Bongo was subdued with the help of a woman employee who soothed him with a candy bar.

HOUSE LEADERS AGREE HOPE FOR TAX CUT DEAD

WASHINGTON (AP)—House leaders agreed today their hope for tax cuts next year is virtually dead.

No, one of a group interviewed on the subject saw any chance for lowering of the tax burden which many of them thought earlier this year might be eased in 1958.

"I don't think it looks very favorable for a significant reduction," said House Speaker Sam Rayburn (D-Tex.).

"I don't think there's much chance to cut taxes," said Rep. Martin of Massachusetts, House Republican leader.

But Rep. Mills (D-Ark.), second-ranking committee member, told the American Tax Foundation at a New York meeting that prospects for tax cuts were dim, although some adjustments might be in order.

The senior Republican on Cooper's committee, Rep. Reed of New York, said he would press for tax relief "just the minute" it appears possible. But he added that there would have to be a surplus of from two to three billion dollars in the Treasury before anything other than an infinitesimal cut could be made.

Emphasis On Missiles
Chairman Cannon (D-Mo.) of the House Appropriations Committee agreed with most others that heavy defense spending next year would rule out tax cuts, and commented: "Heavy taxes are what is balancing the budget now. You can't keep the budget balanced if you reduce taxes."

Both Rayburn and Martin said they would support the appropriation of every dollar necessary to keep up national defense and security and to overcome what Rayburn called the "humiliation" inflicted on the United States by Russia in the field of science.

TELLS CITIES HOW TO SECURE NEW INDUSTRY

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Five steps which the nation's cities can take to get their slices of new multibillion-dollar industry pie were charted here Monday by General Electric's Vice President Roy W. Johnson.

In a speech prepared for delivery to the American Municipal Assn., Johnson said the pie before the 1,600 delegates: "Annual investment in new plant and equipment of a nonpublic nature is expected to increase from the present 37½ billion annual rate to 55 billion dollars by 1967."

Cities City Needs

He underscored the cities' needs for more industry by saying:

1. The United States will have to find a place for 60 million more people in the next 18 years and most of them will be urbanized.
2. Revenue needs of cities already are at the bursting point—with traffic jams alone costing five billion dollars last year, "or more than our total investment in urban public transit."

Five Requirements

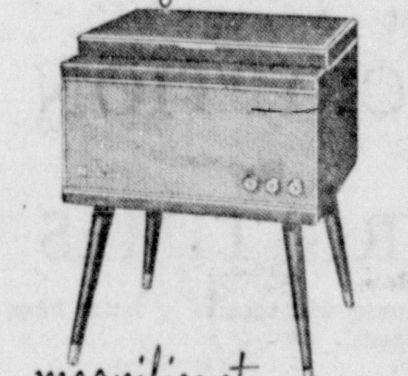

He outlined five requirements in a city for attracting new industry:

1. Comprehensive down-on-paper planning that provides for growth; is flexible; includes long-range capital improvements budgeting; and assures a fair tax burden.

CD IS TESTING WARNING PIECE IN HOME OUTLET

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—The head of the nation's civil defense Monday told a national convention of mayors, "We are developing and testing a simple home warning device that can be plugged into any electrical outlet."

"We hope," said Leo A. Hoegh, federal civil defense administrator, "to see a workable device of this usefulness installed in every home in America that is served by a central power system."

In an address prepared for delivery before the American Municipal Assn., the former Iowa governor said: "As a result of the launching of the Sputniks and the possibility of Russia having intercontinental missiles (which our planning has anticipated), civil defense has become a far more timely subject for discussion than ever before. . . . In some cities, civil defense plans which have been mothballed and put on a standby basis will have to be activated."

Cities Old Law

Hoegh called the principal roadblock a federal civil defense law "that became archaic long before it was seven years old."

He said he considered "extremely vital to the improvement of every level of civil defense" the House-passed Durham bill which comes before the Senate when it reconvenes. The bill's key provision authorizes the FCDA to assist directly and financially in establishing efficient working organizations "at every level of government."

Hoegh listed five key requirements of an effective civil defense program and commented on each:

1. Warning. "We can transmit warnings to 200 key points in every state within 90 seconds. . . . we are continuing to strengthen this system."

2. Communications and control. Communications now are primarily teletype and telephone. "We are in the process of backing these up with radio communications."

3. Survival planning-shelter studies. "We are financing in most of the nation's critical target areas, involving 45 states and three territories, detailed operational survival plans. These plans will be completed within the next seven months." A shelter program, based on Nevada atomic tests, is being pushed.

4. Recovery. "Our medical supplies in stockpiles will treat five million people for three weeks. We need more."

5. Research and education. He mentioned the home plug-in device under this category. "We are determined to reach every individual with information and guidance that may mean the difference between living and dying in this nuclear age."

Youth Shot To Death Over Girl

SALISBURY, Md. (AP)—Noland L. Willey, 17, of Bethel, Del., was shot to death Sunday night and police said it was done by another boy of the same age in an argument over a girl.

Lt. Leslie Johnson, acting police chief, charged Robert Douglas Bruce of Fruitland with murder and held him in jail.

Johnson said Willey was shot in the chest with a .32 caliber automatic outside the home of Cherry Richards, a 17-year-old classmate of Bruce at Wicomico High.

The police officer said Willey was left dead on the sidewalk after an argument between two groups of boys.

Cause of the blaze was not determined but Fire Chief Russell Shelly said it appeared to have started in a wooden joist above the oil burner.

Churchill May Accept Earldom

LONDON (AP)—The Laborite Herald said Monday Sir Winston Churchill may accept an earldom after all because of the personal wishes of Queen Elizabeth II.

There has been no indication from Churchill, who was 83 Saturday, that he intends to leave the House of Commons to move to the House of Lords.

British monarchs traditionally offer a retiring prime minister an earldom, an offer which the former Labor party leader, Clement Attlee, accepted.

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP)—Scientists and technicians continued preparations today for Wednesday's scheduled firing of the Vanguard rocket designed to put a grapefruit-sized earth satellite into orbit.

There appeared no chance that the Navy's three-stage rocket would be launched before the 5 a.m. Wednesday hour which has been set.

The big Vanguard has been seen on the launching ramps in recent days. There has been no announcement whether newsmen will be permitted inside the top-secret missile test center for the firing.

BURGLAR SLAIN EARLY MONDAY

ROCHESTER, N. Y. (AP)—A would-be burglar was shot and killed early Monday in the same store where a former owner was slain by a robber last year.

A man identified as Ronald Austin Byers, 22, a truck sales firm employee here, was shot to death at about 2 a.m. with a .22 rifle by John R. Tracy Jr., 23, who now owns the store with his father.

Joseph Boerschelein, 60, then owner, was beaten and strangled to death in the store the night of March 29, 1956. Lawrence K. Ahlert, 24, is serving a 30-year to life sentence for the slaying.

Tracy told police he heard a noise in the store as he was closing at midnight. Borrowing a rifle at the home of a friend he returned to the store and hid behind a meat counter. He said he dozed off and was awakened by the sound of someone opening the cash register. When the man disregarded an order to "put up your hands," Tracy said, he fired three times.

Two bullets struck Byers, police said, one in the chest and one in the right temple.

Police said it was believed Byers came here from Butler, Pa.

WORRIED WIFE SAVES A LIFE

PITTSBURGH (AP)—John P. O'Hagen, 61, was alive today — thanks to his wife's worrying.

While working at Columbia Hospital Sunday night, Mrs. O'Hagen phoned her husband at their apartment two times but got no answer.

Worried, she called a neighbor, Jack Miller, who said he hadn't seen O'Hagen. Then Miller heard the sound of a car motor.

"Just a minute," he said, "maybe your husband is in the garage."

Miller went to the garage and found O'Hagen unconscious on the floor beside his auto. The car hood was up indicating that O'Hagen had been tinkering with the motor. Only a small side door of the garage was open.

O'Hagen was reported in fair condition, suffering from carbon monoxide poisoning.

STATE PLANS TO PERUSE SCHOOL MONEY RECORDS

HARRISBURG (P)—The Commonwealth is about to take a long hard look at the financial records of school districts after handing out millions in state aid over the years on the basis of only routine checks.

Dr. Clarence E. Ackley, deputy superintendent of public instruction, has been named to head a special audit of school district records of receipts and expenditures with a view toward verifying claims for state aid.

The $200,000 program, authorized by the 1957 Legislature, was described by John Hertz, state director of school business services, as a move "to keep the school districts honest."

And Chairman Paul L. Wagner (R-Schuylkill) of the Senate Education Committee told a newsman he sponsored the law on this basis:

Fear Undue Waste

"We had a feeling that with all the money we're spending on school subsidies we couldn't take any chances on undue waste. We have reason to believe that a lot of school districts are delinquent in their reports and sloppy in detailing their reports."

Hertz said he knew of no cases of outright dishonesty by school district officials in making application for state aid but he added:

"Any agency that dispenses money in the amount that we do should make a periodic check to keep the school districts honest. The special audit should put an end to instances where corners are cut."

The Dept. of Public Instruction is now preparing special forms on which all school districts will uniformly report their finances when applying for school aid.

Special auditors also will visit school districts to double-check information supplied on the forms. The field audits will be made on a regular basis.

A special target in the auditing procedures will be state aid for school transportation, Hertz said.

"We ought to know exactly what's going on locally on school buses," he added.

Points to be checked will be the exact seating capacity of school buses, the mileage to and from school and how easy or difficult it is to complete a given number of daily trips.

The Legislature appropriated $200,000 for the special audit and Wagner said savings of two or three times that figure should result. Hertz explained there never was any previous grant for such a program.

Bursts Bubble For Bored Housewives Chained To Kids

By SAUL PETT (For Hal Boyle)

NEW YORK (P)—Many American women chained to the care and feeding of home and children suffer from the delusion that their husbands lead more interesting lives than they do.

Getting her goodbye kiss in the morning, the wife turns drearily back to the breakfast dishes while her husband, she is convinced, rushes off to the office and an outside life rich in human experience.

When a husband points out that his business life is often nothing but routine, pressures and monotony a wife will frequently say:

Don't Scintillate

"Yes, but at least you have people—adults, different adults to talk to, to stimulate you. Who (most agitated wives aren't grinning) have I got—the baby, the mailman, the neighbor women with their exciting talk about new rhubarb recipes?"

I can't help this wife with her baby, mailman or rhubarb rascals, but I can tell her she isn't missing anything. The people we meet in our business life don't exactly scintillate either. Ask any man in a large office, and I believe he'll agree his desk mates fall into definite fixed types, none of them out of a Noel Coward play. Here are some:

All Back, No Mite

The office evangelist. He's always trying to convert you to his latest enthusiasm—power bench saw, model boats, vacation in Canada, giving up smoking or not giving up smoking.

The office conspirator or rumor-spreader. This guy can't talk to you about the weather without talking behind the back of his hand, eyes darting to and fro like a pitchman watching out for a cop.

The office hypochondriac. He has diseases the American Medical Assn. never heard of.

Floorwalker, Too

The young executive on his way up. He confides only to those within a quarter-mile that he has had lunch with the boss three times in the last four months.

The young executive on his way down. Same fellow four months later. Never mentions lunch with the boss any more.

The office sphinx. Never drinks, smokes, talks, socializes or even goes to the water cooler. Scuttlebutt says he is (a) an ex-army man dishonorably discharged; (b) a defrocked pastor; (c) a reformed alcoholic; (d) an ex-Communist who couldn't sell his memoirs.

The office floorwalker. He always finds your desk more interesting than his and none of your memoirs, mail or papers are too private for him to analyze.

The Unusual One

The one-man security system. Ask him what day it is, he'll say, "I'm not really at liberty to discuss that." Walk by his desk and he'll quickly cradle his phone and turn over papers. This is the kind of guy who can make international intrigue out of the button business.

About the only really unusual type is the man who does his work well with no fuss, is always happy, friendly, helpful. Everybody finds him charming and interesting.

But then you can always talk to me, baby, at home.

INDONESIANS CALL DAY STRIKE AGAINST DUTCH

JAKARTA (P)—The Indonesian government intensified its anti-Dutch campaign Monday with a 24-hour strike against Dutch companies, a virtual ban on the departure of Dutch residents and a shutdown on the operations of the KLM Airline in the island republic.

Indonesia's demand for Dutch-held West New Guinea and the Netherlands' refusal to negotiate on the subject prompted the new pressure campaign. The U.N. General Assembly last Friday declined to support an Indonesian proposal for negotiations under U.N. sponsorship.

Escapes Assassination

President Sukarno, who narrowly escaped assassination Saturday night, left Jakarta with a strong escort for Bogor Palace, in the hills 30 miles away. The government pressed a search for the attackers who threw four grenades at the President as he left a public school in nearby Tjilikin after a speech.

The death toll in the explosions rose to 10 with the death of three more injured. A government announcement said 137 persons, most of them children, were still hospitalized with shrapnel wounds. Sukarno's body guards threw him to the ground and he escaped injury.

The government announced without elaboration that two arrests were made.

"Secret Underground"

In Singapore there was speculation that the attackers might have been members of a secret underground organization led by Col. Zulkifli Lubis, former deputy army commander in chief, who is supported by a Sundanese youth movement.

(Speculation also centered on the Darul Islam movement, which has conducted a guerrilla campaign against the government since Indonesia won independence from the Dutch in 1949. These Moslem fanatics were said to have tried to kill Sukarno in a surprise raid Aug. 17.)

The 24-hour strike against Dutch concerns Monday spread to other enterprises run jointly by the Dutch and nationals of other countries. Dutch shipping, banks and estates were virtually at a standstill.

The government told KLM that it must end operations by 5 a.m. today.

Dutch subjects who recently attempted to obtain exit permits said they were told none were being issued to Dutch residents of Indonesia. The 46,000 Dutch in the country consequently seemed to be barred from leaving.

Dutch investments, totaling more than a billion dollars, dominate much of the republic's economy. The Netherlands believes economic measures taken against the Dutch enterprises will hurt the Indonesians more than the Dutch.

TURN OWN GUNS AGAINST SPAIN

RABAT, Morocco (P)—Ifnian rebels have turned captured Spanish artillery on Spanish troops holding the colonial capital of Sidi Ifni, the correspondent of a Moroccan nationalist newspaper wrote today.

His report in Al Alam said rebels in the small colony on Morocco's west coast had encircled Sidi Ifni and that heavy fighting was continuing around Spanish outposts. Spanish reinforcements which arrived by transport were unable to land because of rebel rifle fire from the shore, the correspondent added.

He reported that Spaniards were digging trenches around Tiliouine in the southeast corner of the 741-square-mile territory and were being supplied by air drops.

His account was at variance with reports from military spokesmen in the Spanish capital of Madrid. The Spanish version said paratroopers had cleaned out rebels in the Tiliouine area, and that Spanish forces were in firm control of the colony.

Moroccan nationalists describe the fighting as a rebellion by Ifnian tribesmen, but Spanish authorities claim Moroccan irregular troops started the trouble.

A spokesman said the 81-year old Chancellor no longer had any fever and that the course of the illness was normal. Adenauer has been confined to his home for five days.

The spokesman added Adenauer would be able to attend the NATO summit meeting opening in Paris Dec. 16.

Lennon Sisters Get New Contract

SANTA MONICA, Calif. (P)—The four singing Lennon sisters, acquiring show business fame on the Lawrence Welk television show, have court approval today of a new contract paying each $203.50 a week for three years.

Superior Judge Orlando H. Rhodes approved the deal for the minor girls, directing them to invest 20 per cent of their earnings in U.S. Savings Bonds.

William H. Lennon, father of Diane, 18; Peggy, 16; Kathy, 14; and Janet, 11, said the contract permits the girls to accept other engagements which do not conflict with the television schedule. Their mother Mrs. Isabella Lennon said the youngsters have a nest egg of $19,000 and are buying annuities which eventually will pay each one $50,000.

Mrs. Dunn had testified that she picked up the knife during the quarrel but it fell to the floor and she did not know how her husband was stabbed with it.

SEE GREAT NEED FOR EXPANSION OF AIR SERVICE

terest demands improvement in local air service throughout the Airlines, told the Civil Aeronautics Board that the New England cities of Boston, Providence, Hartford, Springfield, New Haven,

Bridgeport and New London are "components of the Eastern industrial community."

"Yet they are relatively isolate and certain instances from the District of Columbia," Miller said in prepared testimony.

Ask Some Changes
Allegheny is asking CAB authorities for additional air service routes in the Northeast and elimination of time-taking stops on some already scheduled Eastern short hops.

Community of interest in industry and commerce is evidenced in a number of plant holdings throughout the East, Miller said.

For example, he said, the Harrisburg (Pa.) Steel Co. has a branch plant in Syracuse, N. Y.;
the L. B. Smith Corp., with headquarters in Harrisburg, has a branch in Syracuse, and the National Radiator Co., with home offices in Johnstown, Pa., has branch offices in Syracuse and Harrisburg.

Many Branch Offices
Similarly, Miller said, Armour
& Co. has offices in Syracuse, Baltimore, Williamsport, Pa., and Elmira, N. Y.; Armstrong Cork Co., with headquarters in Lancaster, has a branch plant in Syracuse, and both the Westinghouse Electric Co., and the General Electric
Co. have plants in Syracuse and Elmira.

To meet needs for expanded air service, Miller said, Allegheny has proposed an extension of service from Bradford, Pa., to Syracuse which would serve the needs of numerous industrial centers in both Pennsylvania and New York.

Miller asserted that New York City should be bypassed in aligning new air routes between southern New England and points south and west of New York to avoid air traffic congestion and connecting delays.

Miller's testimony supplemented that of Leslie O. Barnes, Allegheny's president, in urging approval for expanded service.
